KATHERINE ST. ANGELO: RESTORATION

FRI 11 OCT – SAT 9 NOV
GALLERY 1

Mixed media artist, Katherine St. Angelo shares her new body of work, which reflects on emotion and experience to ultimately encapsulate her own identity.

Restoration is a series expressing various emotional states relating to both physical and mental healing, and the complexities of human interactions and relationships.

The ethereal and semi-abstract compositions welcome multiple interpretations through scenes and forms that are suggested but never fully established.

The works explore the acts, interactions, and journeys that are an integral part of the human experience, as we try to reflect, heal, and endeavour to cultivate existence through our own evolving and individual circumstances.

All welcome to the opening on Thurs 10 Oct, 7 - 9pm.

SUSAN ROBINSON: GREY MATTERS

GALLERY 2

This exhibition explores the intricate 'fabric of life'. It challenges our perception of memory, the complexities of the human mind, and the blurred boundaries between reality, myth, and the narratives that shape our personal identities. By intertwining these themes, the work seeks to reinterpret and redefine our understanding of the world and our role within it.

Susan Robison works with constructed textiles and printmaking. She often celebrates the beauty of traditional Irish craftsmanship and creates works which, although unique and contemporary, are imbued with symbolism and sentiment of the past.

All welcome to the opening on Thurs 10 Oct, 7 - 9pm.

Crafternoons with Susan will run alongside the exhibition, see website or contact arts information for further details.

FOUR SISTERS AND FRIENDS

FRI 15 NOV – FRI 20 DEC
GALLERIES 1 & 2

Back in 2015 four sisters, all originally from Lisburn, came together for their first joint exhibition, it was held in ISLAND Arts Centre. Nine years later the sisters, Ethna Brogan, Clare Downing, Roisin Keag and Oonagh Kelly bring us their third joint show, and this time they have invited some artistic friends along too.

A diverse range of materials and techniques has been used including pastels, acrylics, ceramics, textiles and mixed media. With inspiration coming from people, places and things, these imaginative and unique works celebrate love – of family, friends and art.

All welcome to the opening on Thurs 14 Nov, 7 - 9pm & talk with Ethna Brogan on Sat 23 Nov, 2pm.
